Availability of Overdrafts and Personal Reserves

- An arranged overdraft may be available on the Account. Each overdraft application is considered on an individual basis to see if you are eligible.
- 10. You can overdraw up to an arranged limit at any time but you should not be permanently overdrawn by the whole amount or go over your arranged limit.
- 11. You can also agree a personal reserve with us. This is an amount of borrowing that you can have on a short-term basis. It's for occasional emergencies, to help you avoid having payments you've made be returned unpaid. You don't need to have an overdraft to have a personal reserve. If you do have an arranged overdraft your personal reserve gives you some extra borrowing on top of it.
- 12. If you don't use your personal reserve the way that you're meant to, we can withdraw it. We'll write to you first to let you know if we're going to do this.
- 13. You can opt out of a personal reserve at any time. There is no fee for this, but you should check with us before you cancel so that payments that you've made aren't returned unpaid.

- 14. Overdrafts and personal reserves are repayable on demand.
- 15. If you are eligible for an arranged overdraft, you will be notified separately of the rate that will be applicable.
- 16. There's no charge for unarranged borrowing on the Account. But note that we may refuse a payment if it would make you go overdrawn, over your arranged overdraft or over your personal reserve. Also, although we'll not charge you if we refuse a payment, you might incur fees and charges from third parties because the payment wasn't made.
