Summary statement on principal adverse impacts of investment decisions on sustainability factors

30 June 2023

Barclays Bank Ireland PLC (BBI) (LEI:2G5BKIC2CB69PRJH1W31) considers principal adverse impacts of its investment decisions on sustainability factors. The present statement is the consolidated statement on principal adverse impacts on sustainability factors of BBI.

This statement on principal adverse impacts on sustainability factors covers the reference period from 1 January 2022 to 31 December 2022.

It includes a description of the principal adverse impacts that BBI's investment decisions (made during the reference period) have had on sustainability factors and follows measurement of the indicators related to the principal adverse impacts considered by BBI. A summary of these indicators found in the table below includes the specific reference to the table number and principal adverse impacts (PAI) number, as set out in Annex I of Commission Delegated Regulation (EU) 2022/1288.

This statement approaches sustainability from the perspective of:

- BBI's role as a financial market participant covering investments within its Discretionary Portfolio Management service.
- The most significant negative impacts that investments can have on sustainability factors related to environmental, social or governance considerations.
- The steps BBI takes to consider the principal adverse impacts of its investment decisions, whether seeking to reduce or limit some or all of these negative impacts.
